

Rules for participation to the COST-727 project „icing measurements at the Guetsch station”

1- General participation to the project (end-users)

- a. Participation to project meetings
- b. Regular reviewing of the project state (twice a year)
- c. Reviewing of the project results (twice a year)
- d. Definition and implementation of specific operational activities (optional, financial participation to be handled separately)
- e. Final report
- f. Complete data set at project's end
- g. Financial contribution CHF 9'000.-

2- Special participation for instruments' manufacturers – sensors' tests

- a. Delivery (free of charge) by manufacturer of operational sensors with technical documentation to MeteoSwiss during the summer preceding measurement periods (winter): tests of connection at the MeteoSwiss test station Payerne.
- b. Site-review of installation performed by MeteoSwiss (optional)
- c. Exchange of instruments during measurement periods (optional, financial participation for MeteoSwiss to be handled separately)
- d. Regular delivery by project of specific manufacturer instruments' results together with standard meteorological parameters (inclusive camera pictures and reference icing data from ISO standard when available)
- e. Evaluation of specific manufacturer instruments' results by Meteotest (optional, financial participation to be handled separately)
- f. Final report
- g. Financial contribution CHF 3'000.- /sensor

3- Development of prototype instruments

- a. Support by MeteoSwiss as well as by the international COST-727 community
- b. Financial contribution: free of charge

Bern, 25.5.05 Heimo/Kunz